

Perry Gillies,
President, Lyric Services, Inc.

Perry Gillies is the President and founder of Lyric Services, a consulting and alternative asset servicing firm specializing in life settlements. He brings a diverse set of analytical, executive and operational experience in the areas of insurance, life settlements, lending and leasing, alternative asset investing, mergers and acquisitions, and information technology. Prior to forming Lyric, Mr. Gillies was the Chief Operating Officer of New Stream Capital, the general partner for several private investment funds, where he was responsible for day-to-day operating management and led the fund's post-2008 restructuring efforts. Previously Mr. Gillies worked at GE Capital for 25 years in senior leadership positions in the US and Europe. Mr. Gillies has held Series 7 and Series 63 securities licenses, board seats for international companies including Finanzia (Spain), Northstar Financial Services (Bermuda) and GE European Equipment Finance (UK). He received his undergraduate degree from Yale University.